WITH THE WILCOX MEN

Movements of Native Politicians.

THE LUAU AT KAALAEA

Most of the Meetings Held on Oahu Were Well-Attended--Many Speeches Made.

A letter was received by the editor of the "Loea Kalaiala," a native paper, from George Poolca, a member of the Board of Registration informing him that 339 qualified voters have been registered from Puuloa to Waianae.

D. Kalauokalani and his associates reached Waimanalo last Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. About two hours later a meeting was called. There was a little difficulty at first to secure the Waimanalo school house, the school master and the manager of the Waimanalo plantation having refused the Independent Home Rulers the use of it. The latter argued that while they were full-fledged American citizens and as the school house was an American property they ought to be granted its use. However, the Independent spellbinders prepared to hold the meeting on the veranda, but meantime an answer was received that they might use the schoolhouse for the rendezvous and a rally meeting was had. The school-house was crowded to its fullest and there was even difficulty to get standing room near the windows from the outside. The meeting commencing about 7:30 o'clock was continued until midnight. The speakers were D. Kalauokalani, J. W. Pipikane, Joseph Clark, J. W. Halola and J. Kalauka.

The luau at Kaalaea for the Home Rulers was celebrated there last Thursday. A good table was provided by the Kaalaeans and the visitors found no fault with it. The table was furnished with pig cooked underground, meat cooked likewise and the usual dainty supplies of a Hawaiian dinner. A large crowd made the day lively. Among those present at the luau were R. W. Wilcox, D. Kalauokalani, J. K. Kaulia, J. K. Prendergast, George Markham, J. W. Pipikane, John Kalauka and Joseph Clark.

The luau was ready at noon and after the repast the preparations for the speeches of the afternoon began. At 1:30 o'clock the meeting was called at the Mormon Church at Kaalaea and closed at 5:30 o'clock. A large crowd of natives were present and standing room was not available. The speakers were R. W. Wilcox, D. Kalauokalani, J. K. Kaulia, George Markham, J. K. Prendergast, Joseph Clark, J. W. Pipikane, John Kalauka, J. K. Paele, J. W. Halola and S. K. Pua.

After the meeting the Home Rulers left Kaalaea and returned to Kaneohe with the intention to hold a meeting there. On their arrival at 8:30 o'clock, an hour later than the time appointed for the meeting, they found everything quiet. J. K. Kaulia, R. W. Wilcox and J. W. Pipikane returned to town while D. Kalauokalani and other spellbinders remained over until yesterday morning in order to call a meeting at Kaneohe.

According to J. K. Kaulia, all the natives at Waimanalo and Kaalaea are Independents. This certainly contradicts Frank Pahi's view who claims that the Koolauans in those districts are Republicans.

IN FAVOR OF FUSION.

Editor Advertiser—I am very glad to see the proposition for the Republicans and Democrats to pool their issues. I have been a Republican from the organization of the party, and gave my first vote for Lincoln in 1860; but now, and here the country demands that all good men unite to counteract the danger that threatens us from demagogism. The intelligent, clean voters are few enough, all told, from both parties, to save the election. Let us pick trustworthy men from both parties, and back them up with voice and ballot and have our first United States election a trumpet blast for a strong, pure government.

FIRE CLAIMS WILCOX AGREES TO PAY

Run to the Big Total of Two and a Half Millions.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Claims aggregating $2,500,000 or more have arisen in connection with the efforts made principally in Hawaii to prevent the bubonic plague from securing a foothold in this country and its outlying possessions by burning down a considerable part of the Japanese and Chinese quarters, where it was thought the disease might find some lodging.

Two Japanese residents are said to have lost their lives, furniture and practically all belongings. The loss is estimated at $300,000. The Chinese loss was estimated at about $2,000,000. The Japanese Consul General at Hawaii first brought the matter to the attention of the Hawaiian authorities, asking that the losses incurred by the Japanese subjects be reimbursed to them. President McKinley gave the necessary authority to Governor Dole to appoint a commission of five members to pass upon all claims of this nature, but on objection of the claimants this fell through. The authorities here feel that it is a matter which Hawaii should adjust and moreover there is no fund available for such losses. The subject is under consideration, however, and it is hoped some means may be adopted by co-operation of Washington and Honolulu for adjusting the matter.

HUSBAND WAS CRUEL

A Wife's Narrative Of Brutality.

SHE ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Marion Hendrickson Accuses Her Husband of Inhuman Treatment While Ill.

A tale of cruelty, long suffering and of wifely duty in the face of domestic horrors that would shock the heart of the average woman, is narrated in the petition of Marion Hendrickson, who has commenced suit against her husband. For more than three years the wife has withstood, according to her story, the assaults of a brutal husband, who, not content with abusing her physically with all the brute strength he could command, has time and time again sent her from his roof and threshold into the world with but the clothes she had on her back. Her children were as utterly cast out, and whether or not they died was of no consequence to the husband.

After weeks of separation, says the complaint, the husband cringed at her feet, begging her to come back to his fireside, promising he would treat his wife as she should be treated, but only to find that his promises sank out of sight as water does through a sieve. At length even the loving heart of the woman was so torn and bruised that she has at last cast herself at the mercy of the courts of law to rid her of the bonds of matrimony which tie her to the man to whom she gave her all. The couple were married at Kaneohe on or about June 11, 1897, and last lived together at Ewa, Oahu. Two children have been born to them. At Waimanalo, where they went to live after their marriage, the plaintiff alleges that the husband ill-treated her almost continuously, often in a brutal and inhuman manner. She also alleges that at various times in 1897 and 1898 he was unfaithful. She says that while an inmate of the Maternity Home her husband never visited her, although she was ill and not expected to recover, and alleges that her husband stated that he did not care whether she died or not, and that during that time he refused to support his wife or make any provision for her with medical treatment, food, clothing or money, and she was compelled to rely on the charity of her relatives. After regaining her health the plaintiff alleges the husband came to her and persuaded her that he would treat her in a proper manner. But she says she had been in the house at Ewa only a short time when he again began his brutality, and continued daily to treat her in a revolting manner. On July 15 the husband drove the wife from their home without money, food or clothes, except the old garments then upon her body, and at the same time telling her father to take her home, and not to telephone him if she died. At the expiration of four months the husband again persuaded the woman to go back home with him, which she did, promising to do better. But he disregarded his promises, she alleges.

DINNERS AT COUNTRY HOUSES.

For a large dinner the name of the woman a man is to take in is placed in a small envelope addressed to him, which is given to him in the hall or cloak room, but for a small affair the host generally tells him the name in the drawing room. When dinner is announced, the host leads the way with the person he desires particularly to honor, as there is no established rule of precedence in this country, and the hostess brings up the rear after all her guests have preceded her. In regard to the service, it is a mistake to have too many attendants as they are apt to get in one another's way. A butler and two footmen are enough for a dinner of ten. If outside service is required, it should be as unobtrusive as possible.

When the women are about to leave the room the hostess generally makes a friendly little signal to the woman on her husband's right hand, and at the door the hostess should stand until the other women have all passed out. It seems superfluous to add that coffee is served in the drawing room.

ITCHING PILES.

From the Melbourne Age.

Ever have any irritation of the skin? There are many forms of it, any of them bad enough to tax your patience. Hemorrhoid, a plague of the night; no rest for the sufferer from that complaint. Eczema, too; hives don't sound dangerous, but they cause much misery to those unfortunate enough to be troubled with them. Doan's Ointment is "A wonder" for any such trouble. Any troublesome irritation of the skin can't resist its healing, soothing influence. Lots of Honolulu people know this now.

Mr. H. Ryall, of No. 11, Grosvenor St., South Yarra, is a very old resident of Melbourne. He states:

For some considerable time I have been a sufferer from that annoying complaint known as irritating piles. At times the irritation was very annoying, especially at night, and in the warm weather. I applied some of Doan's Ointment which I had obtained and I am pleased to say that it gave me the desired relief from this annoying disease.

Doan's Ointment is splendid in all diseases of the skin: Eczema, piles, hives, insect bites, sores, chilblains, etc. It is perfectly safe and very effective. Very frequently two or three boxes have made a complete cure of chronic cases that have not yielded to other remedies for years. Doan's Ointment is sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
